

LIVING in LOVE

*...for singles and couples
of all sexual orientations*

Tantra Heart Workshop Level One October 8-10 Chicago

Tantra Heart is about embodying passion in everyday life.

It is an ancient spiritual path adapted for contemporary individuals to awaken the vibration of Love within.

Love is the essence of our nature—who we truly are.

This workshop will bring you to the places where you hold on and shore up the ocean of your passion.

It will gently open the way for you to experience another way of Being.

Sexual Spiritual energy is the most potent, transformational energy there is.

Come and find out who you are with it and how it works with you.

When we engage with it in a conscious, sacred way, the very fabric of who we are changes.
